Gerald Moore Gallery presents NOW: New Original Work, an exhibition of artworks by 2019 London Art school graduates handpicked to showcase their latest work.

Artists include Alexandra Searle, (The Slade School of Fine Art), Jung Min Park (Chelsea College of Arts), Susan Rocklin and Joseph Yaeger (Royal College of Art). The exhibition will include paintings, sculpture and installations.

This is the first year Gerald Moore Gallery has presented an exhibition of new London art school graduates and is a tradition it aims to continue with each year to offer a platform to graduates about to embark on their careers.

Gerald Moore Gallery is uniquely placed within the grounds of Eltham College and serves both the students and the wider local community. This exhibition aims to inspire the next generation of artists by introducing them to existing artists and their work.

NOTES TO EDITORS

About Gerald Moore Gallery

Gerald Moore Gallery is a young centre for modern and contemporary art with learning at its heart. Opened in April 2012, in Mottingham, the gallery is uniquely set within the grounds of Eltham College and is a valuable resource for the students and the local community. The gallery has gained momentum hosting some exciting exhibitions including works by Matisse, Louise Bourgeois and Cornelia Parker, whilst supporting emerging local artists. In unison with the exhibitions, the gallery's outreach programme works with local community groups, teachers and schools, creating lasting relationships with our locality. Gerald Moore Gallery was made possible with the foresight and generosity of Old Elthamian, Dr Gerald Moore, many of whose works are archived at the gallery and who has a permanent exhibition on display. www.geraldmooregallery.org
